MEMORANDUM FOR: Ben Evans
Assistant to the Director
Central Intelligence Agency

SUBJECT: Request for CIA Combined
Telephone Directory

I understand a new Combined Telephone Directory was issued in March 1975, but this office is not on distribution.

Agency telephone directories, both the Combined Secure Telephone Directory and the regular CIA Directory, have been assigned to the CIA Liaison Office in OEOB since the early 1960's. They prove invaluable in our daily work in locating the appropriate employees whom we have need to contact. In our liaison duties we are often asked by other NSC staff officers to be put in touch with Agency offices for assistance. Without the directories this effort would be very time-consuming, as calls to known Agency numbers would be necessary to "track down" the desired number, particularly since the Agency operator does not reveal numbers for certain employees.

Maximum security facilities for storage are utilized for the directories. They are kept at all times in a safe equipped with an alarm which is activated when the office is closed. Only my secretary and I (both Agency employees) have access to this safe, and the directories are never carried away from the safe. No one else is permitted to use the directories.

Since it would be most helpful to us in servicing the Agency, as well as assisting the NSC Staff in its work with CIA, it is requested that I be issued a copy of the CIA Combined Telephone Directory.

Ben,

Would appreciate your help on this. The red-tape machinery seems to have ground to a halt after years of supplying us with phone directories.

Part of our problem is illustrated by the fact that I had to call Barbara last week to ask for a phone number--one can't do that too often. It would be better to give us a phone book!

For your information, the following forwarded to me this date by

STAT

Finally, I wish to report that the NSC has received a request from the Rockefeller Commission for all NSC directives to the CIA, including NSC 10/2, 5412, NSDM 40, etc. Similar materials have been passed to the Counsel to the President, Mr. Buchen, in response to a request from the Church Select Committee. I have been told that it is Mr. Buchen's intent to pass these items along to the Church Committee to satisfy the Committee's request for material "to determine the legal basis for the activities for the intelligence agencies."

Dear Sir;

I for one believe I am among a number of people that were spied upon by the C.I.A. within the United States.

Therefore I respectfully request information as to the prospects of the release of the names of those people that were under surveillance either by the C.I.A. or by one of their cover organizations within the United States of America.

I am willing to cooperate with any investigation that would bring to light details of the domestic surveillance activities of the Central Intelligence Agency. Sincerely;
